President's Holiday Message 2019

Hi Ladies,

Not sure where the year has gone, but another holiday season and year end are upon us. Hopefully, everyone has enjoyed the past months of luncheons and all our clubs' activities.

I want to take this time to thank the board members for all their hard work in planning and providing you with the wonderful trips, fun books to read, games to play and interesting speakers at these meetings! Our first fundraiser, the "Bakeless" Bake Sale has been very successful in raising money for our scholarship fund. We will continue it through the end of the year. We have a Paint Party planned for January 18th, no experience necessary! On March 15th, we will have our Third Mystery Luncheon with the Pelican Players. In-between all the fundraisers we have many activities for you to enjoy including our 60th Anniversary Celebration in February!

Our membership is now 141 wonderful ladies. I appreciate all of you who are attending the luncheons and if you want to help with any of the fundraisers, please let me know. Members are always welcome to bring a guest and I am sure once they attend a meeting, they will be hooked on our smiles, laughter and realize all we do for our community, they will want to be part of this wonderful group!

Please have a very Merry Christmas and enjoy the holidays with those you love. I wish you much peace, love and laughter to last through the next year! Remember I am always here for you.

Hugs,
Claudia Gasset
President

BOOK CLUB

Chair: Sandy Dillmuth

Chair: Cyd Charrow

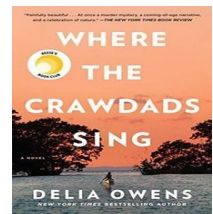

The Book Club continues to thrive with a welcome luncheon and 2 book discussions. In December we come to a screeching halt due to the holiday calendar. You should not have any worries. In January we pick up with full speed ahead with 3 events.

On January 2, 2020 at 11:00 we will have a special event: a Holiday Lunch with our fun book exchange. Each person brings a wrapped book or reader theme item. We play games exchanging the gifts. Sandra Dillmuth hosts this event.

At the January membership meeting, January 8, 2020, the club will sponsor the annual book sale supporting the scholarship fund. All members of ABWC are asked to bring high interest books to sell and $ to purchase good "reads".

On January 30, 2020 the regular book club meeting is scheduled. We will discuss the #1 U.S. book club read, "Where the Crawdads Sing" by Delia Owens. Cyd Charrow is hostess.

Everyone is welcomed.

Books are reserved at the Ruskin Library when they are available.

The ABWC Book Club meets the 4th Thursday of the month at the home of the hostess at 10:00 am. Adjustments are made for the holidays.

Reservations made to Sandra Dillmuth or the hostess of the month.

Chair: Sharron Brunk

BRIDGE AND OTHER GAMES CLUB

Our Bridge and Games Group met in September and October playing Bridge, Hand and Foot and Rummikub. We were happy to welcome back some of our snowbirds Lou Knight, Joan Bolla, Luci Marx, and Mary Lou Cunningham. But our numbers were still small so I was heartened to get a call from new member Kate Carlisle who will be playing bridge once again after some years away from the table.

If other games are desired, let us know and we will offer them to our members. It is a great way for club members to meet others and socialize, while playing cards or a board game.

With the holidays approaching, we decided to consolidate our November and December games into one event, playing Monday December 2 at our regular time 9:30 until about noon.

(The November and December dates fell too close to the holidays.)

In January, we should be back on the regular schedule of the 4th Monday morning of the month – January 27th.

We play at the Apollo Beach Golf Club Café located at 801 Golf and Sea Blvd.

Regular members are contacted by email and phone to make reservations so that we have sufficient numbers for bridge or any other games offered.

Please call Sharron Brunk at 813-672-3553 or email at sharbrunk@aol.com.
Spouses are welcome if so desired.

CULTURE CLUB

Chair: Carol Kock

October 15, 2019 we went to the Imagine Museum in St. Petersburg to view the many collection and major works of American and International art created by founding, leading, current and emerging artists working in the field of studio glass. Lots of beautiful pieces. Before heading home, we stopped and had lunch at Red Mesa Cantina restaurant. Great Mexican food.

The Culture Club and Garden Club will together go to the Palm View Nursing Home on December 5th, 2 pm. We will be meeting at Palm Gardens nursing home in the lobby. You can sign up by calling me at 440-667-9501. We will be singing Christmas Carol's and giving out Christmas ornaments and blankets.

On Monday, January 13th, the club will go to Weeki-Wachee Park. Cost is $13. We will meet at 7:15 am at the north end of the Publix parking lot on Hwy. 41 & 19th Street. You can register with me no later than January 8th. We will eat lunch at the park.

PROGRAMS

Time once again for our newsletter. Looking back to October we enjoyed a presentation to our ladies from Debbie Van Ore a leader of, One Hundred Women Who Care. She explained the history of this club as well as its philanthropic purpose of quarterly donating $100 per member to a worthy cause.

L-R Beverley Brooks, 1st VP of ABWC Programs; Debbie Van Ore, program speaker; Susie Cochran "100 Women Who Care" member; and ABWC President Claudia Gassett.

A cancellation of the November presenter SGT Theodore James Van Aulen Jr was a disappointment. Unfortunately James was diagnosed with brain tumors and was scheduled for surgery at Moffit. Prayers for him and his family would be appreciated. We were fortunate enough to get Tina McGlynn from C.A.T.E., Conquering Addiction Through Education, to step in for us. She along with her friend Sharon saw the need for this program in our area. CATE is an Apollo Beach non-profit organization dedicated to helping individuals dealing with drug, alcohol, gambling, food or other addictions.

Coming on December 11th we will have the privilege of being entertained once again by the East Bay High School choral group, Sounds of Time, under the direction of Brian NeSmith.

As usual we have the pleasure on January 8th to take the time to celebrate and honor our long time members.
